

To Whom It May Concern,

I have been asked to write a letter of recommendation for Tanner Johnson. I would like to start by stating it is my honor to have the chance to write about this young man. I have had the privilege to know Tanner for most of his young life. During this time my two sons and Tanner literally grew up together, attending the same schools, playing on the same teams, and living in the same neighborhood together. During these many years I have been able to watch Tanner grow up and mature into the young man he is today.

Tanner is a young man with a great attitude, who is always smiling, and who tries to find the best in every situation. Tanner has faced many adversities in his young life and has shown the ability to overcome these adversities through his strong work ethic, and his strong and supportive family. Tanner can be counted on and is a man of his word. Tanner can be trusted with anything I own and love.

Tanner is a great athlete who loves the game of baseball. I have witnessed his tenacious work ethic on the baseball field for over 10 years as his coach. I have witnessed Tanner fail and succeed on the field, whichever the outcome Tanner does it with grace and sportsmanship. Tanner has shown through his strong work ethic to succeed both on the field and in the classroom. Tanner has shown strong leadership skills as he has matured. Tanner is not the loudest most outspoken person on the field; however Tanner's strongest leadership skills are leading by action, work ethic and by example. He is well liked and respected by his teammates and coaches and is never the source of negative issues on the field or in the dugout.

Tanner is a goal-orientated person who will not let his family, friends, co-workers, teammates, or his educator's down. He can be counted on to make the right decision even when nobody is looking. Tanner is honest, and trustworthy. He is a young man worth taking a risk on. I will proudly tell anybody, "Tanner can always be on my team"! Tanner will be a great teammate, player, and leader at the next level.
